FIS: What is it?

• One point for organizing and reporting your scholarly, research, and teaching activities.
• Easily import your publications from sources like Scopus, ORCiD, PubMed, MLA, and more.
• With one click, create a professional CV, annual report, or grant biosketch.
• Self-archive your work and share it with the world.

FIS: Get started

CSSD maintains FIS and provides help for getting started and using various parts of FIS.

http://technology.pitt.edu/services/faculty-information-system-elements
First steps for using FIS:

Update your profile (Menu -> My Account -> Profile -> Edit Profile)

Add external profiles (Scopus, ORCID, SSRN, etc.) under Menu -> Manage -> Publications -> Automatic Claiming
  ◦ This will help you build your publications list quickly and easily!

Update your publication search settings (Menu -> Manage -> Publications -> Search Settings)
  ◦ Add the variations of your name that you’ve published under.
  ◦ Add institutions where you were previously employed.
  ◦ Update search sources specific to you.
FIS: Advanced

Add grants, teaching activity, and professional activity.

Once you have your list of publications, archive & share them in D-Scholarship@Pitt by clicking the Deposit icon on each record.
But first...
make all of this easier
with ORCID!
Why is ORCID important to researchers?

- Permanently & uniquely identifies each author globally
- Makes authors the hub in the digital research infrastructure
- Accurately coordinates research between stakeholders
- Author’s work found faster, more accurately

Hands-on Work

If you do not have an ORCID...

1. Sign up at orcid.pitt.edu
2. Connect ORCID to Scopus, MLA, etc. appropriate to your research area.
3. Add any publications that are not found in these sources.

Then proceed to the next column!

If you already have an ORCID iD...

1. Connect your existing ORCID account at orcid.pitt.edu
2. Log in to FIS at facultyinfo.pitt.edu
3. Add your ORCID and other external profiles into FIS under Manage -> Publications -> Automatic Claiming
4. Continue to work with FIS to build your profile.
